TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

It is with a great pleasure that I highly recommend Ms. Karla Ivonne Natividad who was selected to participate in the 2009 Winter/Spring Session of the OAS Student Internship Program (February 3rd - May 15th). Ms. Natividad was assigned to the Inter-American Committee on Ports under the supervision of Mr. Danner Moscoso.

Ms. Natividad is a very energetic young professional who has demonstrated a positive attitude at all times. Her work with us has been impeccable, timely, and efficient. Her reliability and organized skills have proven to be a great asset to us in moving forward with our projects. Her ability to quickly adapt and her willingness to learn were excellent attributes that contributed to her success in the internship program.

The Program is very competitive for students who desire to learn or complement their classroom knowledge about Latin American and Caribbean issues. As we look for individuals with a strong motivation and commitment, extra curricular activities are considered a key element in the selection process. An important component of our Program is the cycle of mandatory weekly meetings hosted by senior officials to provide interns with a clear insight into overall OAS activities. Interns are also encouraged to attend the OAS Permanent Council Meetings, and other International Organizations to increase their understanding of the International environment in which they operate.

Summing up, I can confirm that Ms. Natividad completed the program to our fullest expectations and I am pleased to add my appreciation for her work.

Sincerely,
